

Wisconsin Law Journal

The Wisconsin Law Journal is a key source of legal news and case information essential to practicing law in Wisconsin. That's why lawyers, judges and other legal professionals turn to our products to keep up with the changes they need to know.

January: Expert Witness Guide

Our annual Expert Witness Guide will feature articles on how to choose an expert and decisions related to the use of expert witnesses. It will also offer our readers a directory of expert witnesses.

February: Leaders in the Law Event

The annual Leaders in the Law magazine profiles some of the top members of the state's legal community. The winners — chosen from a group of nominees — will be recognized for their recent accomplishments and successes in our February special section and at an awards lunch on February 12, 2010.

March: 'Best of' Section

The Wisconsin Law Journal will once again turn to our readers for their opinions on the best that Wisconsin's law community has to offer. From the best judges, law professors, law-related Web site, to the best lawyer to fill out a foursome in golf and the best dressed.

April: Practice Management

In this special section, the Wisconsin Law Journal will cover what every practitioner needs to know to grow their business and practice law more efficiently.

May: Women in the Law Event

The Wisconsin Law Journal will once again recognize the outstanding accomplishments of women attorneys, judges and legal professionals from around Wisconsin. We will profile them in our May special section and at an awards lunch on May 21, 2010.

June: ADR Directory

Alternative Dispute Resolution continues to be an essential tool in the legal system. This section will highlight new developments and emerging issues in ADR and offer our readers a directory of ADR providers.

July: Construction Law

The Daily Reporter and Wisconsin Law Journal team up in July to focus on Construction law and the attorneys who fight for the rights of builders. This year, we'll offer the latest legal news that affects construction, and we'll profile some of the brightest stars in the legal profession.

August: Up and Coming Attorneys Event

Join us in recognizing the rising stars of Wisconsin's legal community. These attorneys are on the fast track to making a significant impact on the legal profession. They represent determination — in legal work, in community betterment, and in improving their own law firms. We will recognize each of the honorees in a special publication and during a reception on August 31, 2010.

September: Corporate Counsel

The Wisconsin Law Journal will profile members of the state's in-house law community, and also take a look at the latest news of note in the practice of corporate law.

October: Litigation Support Guide

This guide is designed to help litigators as they seek out tools and information about new resources that can help them as they take their cases to trial. We will focus on the type of support services available to litigators.

November: Unsung Heroes Event

In November, the Wisconsin Law Journal will once again honor the Unsung Heroes of our legal community whose efforts are essential to helping law firms and courts run efficiently. We'll recognize several categories, including: Secretary, Paralegal, Library Staff, Firm Administrator, Human Resources, IT Specialist, Marketer and Court Staff. All nominees will be honored at our luncheon on November 12 and profiled in our 2010 Unsung Heroes magazine.

December: Largest Law Firms

Our annual section will survey and list the state's largest law firms. This section includes valuable information about the biggest law firms and their approaches to management.
